Valley Forge Homestead Quilters

Guild Newsletter

June 2011

Clips from Chris

Happy summer to all! Wow, what weather we have been having, going from needing a row boat to needing a block of ice, not to worry, this wonderful weather has forced me into a sewing mode. Believe it or not - four quilt tops quilted, bound and ready for something or someone. Yes, I know, a few were small ones, but something completed is better than nothing completed.

Looking ahead we have so much going on such as our Picnic, Pamela's jacket workshop, our ice cream social, Vickie's cathedral window workshop, UFO tea, Ramona's lady's night using strips, and so on. There is too much to mention so make sure you keep your eye on the newsletter for all we have to offer and all of the wonderful guild meetings with friends. See you all at our picnic and don't forget to bring your dish to share and your appetite to boot.

Chris

Guild Meeting Information ~ June 21, 2011

Enjoy our wonderful annual picnic as well as listen to Nancy Bills. Nancy Bills will provide a trunk show of her quilts, as well as selling fabric and patterns. Be prepared, bring money. Please remember to make this a successful picnic; we do rely on all our members to bring one of the following:

- If your last name begins with A—F, salad or hors d'oeuvre
- If your last name begins with G—L, bring a main dish
- If your last name begins with M—Z, bring a dessert

Reminder: The meeting starts at 6 p.m.

Fat Quarter Raffle

April, May, June 2011

Continuing on the theme of creating a safe, peaceful lifestyle, so we can calmly deal with the chaos in the world around us, I was feeling In a Blue Mood. Since our Hunter Star workshop was approaching, I was looking through some of my quilt magazine issues for 2/ color quilts and a blue and white quilt caught my eye. The serene and soothing coolness of the blue and white put my mind in a more relaxed state.

Instead of chasing the blues away, gather up your fat quarters of Blue & White, White with Blue or just Blue to put you In a Blue Mood.

Block of the Month

Please bring your June block to the meeting for a chance of a great prize from the prize basket. We will also discuss any challenges for the July Block. It may be helpful to bring the calendar/book or the pattern page to the meeting.

NOTE: Our Bees are open to all members of the Valley Forge Homestead Quilt Guild. We work on our own hand projects (there's not usually room for sewing machines); we assist each other by suggesting ways to layout quilt blocks, work with colors, etc.; and we enjoy each other's company in a smaller venue. Check your calendar and see if you are able to join one or all of the Bees this month. If you would like to host one of the Bees, please contact Jean Hayden (Afternoon Bee) or Beth Quigley (Evening Bee) or Gloria Clark (Appliqué Bee) or Jackie Gauker (Wool Appliqué Group).

Visit us on Facebook to see pictures of the first Wool Appliqué Bee in June.

More Summer “Quilty” Reading

Leaving Gee’s Bend by Irene Latham.

Gee’s Bend is Ludelphia Bennett’s home but when her mother becomes very sick she ventures away from Gee’s Bend to the nearest town, Camden in search of a doctor. Leaving Gee’s Bend takes place in 1932 and gives accurate descriptions of the day-to-day life of a very poor family in Gee’s Bend, Alabama. Along with the drama of a new baby, a dying mother, and blindness there is the story of quilting and a young girl’s love of sewing her story into a quilt for her mother.

The Threadbare Heart by Jennie Nash.

Lily and Tom have a good life, both are college professors, their children are raised and they have one wonderful granddaughter but both question each other and their current lives. After visiting Lily’s mother in California, they decide to move to California and buy an Avocado farm. Lily longs to create an art quilt and now has the time, although she has collected a stash of fabric forever which she packs and sends to California to begin to fulfill her sewing dream. Once in California, tragedy occurs that devastates Lily and her family. The Threadbare Heart is an emotional story of the traumas of a mid-life married couple, family relationships, death and rebirth through new experiences be it an art quilt or learning about avocados.

The Goodbye Quilt by Susan Wiggs.

Linda Davis has spent her entire life practically as a mom and as a quilter. She is now making that special quilt for her daughter, Molly, who is off to college. This is the story of their journey from Wyoming to Massachusetts, the making of the quilt with bits of fabric from Molly’s old clothes as well as those of Linda and Linda’s family, and the decisions that occur along the way. This is the story of a special quilt and a special relationship between mother and daughter.

Welcome

Jean Hayden met up with one of our newest members, Tamara Rommel and told her all about our guild so Tamara just had to join us. Tamara has been sewing for fifteen years and quilting for five years. She became interested in quilting when a quilt store opened near her home in Houston in 2006. She enjoys simple quilting projects and has not yet completed a bed-size quilt. Besides sewing and quilting, Tamara enjoys gardening. Tamara works part time as a packer for Moving Solutions and is the mother of two children. Welcome, Tamara!

Meeting Minutes ~ May 17, 2011

Meeting Commenced: At 7:00 p.m. Chris welcomed all members to our monthly meeting.

Door Prize: The winners were Jacqui Santangelo, Cathy Radcliffe, and Tamara Rommel.

BOM: The winner for the Block of the Month was Gail Forester.

Bees: The next evening bee will meet at Marge Quinn's home on May 24th. The afternoon bee will meet at Hedy DeMito's home on June 14th.

Appliqué Group: Will meet at Gloria Clark's home on June 7th.

Our new "Got Wool" Bee: Will meet at Chris Candello's home on June 3rd. Jackie Gauker will coordinate projects. The first project will be an appliqué box top.

Fat Quarter: During the next raffle for April, May, and June we will continue our theme of creating a safe and peaceful lifestyle. Start collecting your blue and white fat quarters and let your mind be in a more relaxed state. Bring in your fat quarters and enter the drawing. The drawing will be held in June.

Comfort Quilts: Charlene delivered 22 quilts to the Abramson Cancer Center and 8 Kaps for Kids to Children's Hospital. On Friday she will make a delivery to the VA Center.

Workshop: Jean H. said we will have a workshop in July with Ramona from Chester County Quilting; the theme will be jelly rolls. In August we will have our annual tea party along with a UFO and Cathedral window workshop. In September we will be doing a Saturday Sampler and in October we will have a workshop with Susan Shively making a wall hanging.

AQS/Connecting Threads – Kathy will be putting in orders in May and June. Call or email her if you would like to be included.

Excursion: Linda has sign up sheets for the Hershey

Quilt Show being held in July. She will be able to get discounted tickets if she has a group of 20 or more. See her if you plan to attend and would like to purchase a discounted ticket.

Retreat: Sally reported that fall retreat will be November 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 6th. She will start taking sign ups in June. It will be $150.00 for Friday-Sunday and $205.00 for Thursday-Sunday.

Steve's Sewing Center: Pat reported that Steve will start showcasing guild member's quilts at his new store. Valley Forge Guild will be showcased during the months of July and August. See Pat or Liz if you would like to have your quilt on display.

Tonight's Program: Gloria introduced our speaker for the evening Pamela Leggett. She has been teaching sewing since 1981 specializing in pattern fitting and garment skills. She has developed techniques to fit and flatter the wearer. She demonstrated with an actual pattern how to alter the dart area and shoulder area for a better fit. Tonight she also took measurements to custom design patterns for the ladies who will be taking her jacket workshop in June.

Nominations: Linda stepped in for Lou to introduce the candidates for the June election. Treasurer, Gail Forester; Recording Secretary, Marebeth Conard; Membership Secretary, Judy Snook; Vice President, Jacqui Santangelo; and President, Candy Garrido. Each member gave a short summary of their qualifications for the upcoming election. The new board will start in September.

Sister Act: Tonight we played Game Show Guru. Linda Hamel and Jacqui Santangelo were the contestants. Question...you sew with your shoes on or off...true or false. The answer is "on" Jacqui won $18.00 and Linda won a yo-yo maker.

Show and Tell

50 - 50 with a Twist

May's 50-50 game was Li'le E, Game Show Guru Asks. Jacqui Santangelo and Linda Hamel were chosen as the contestants for this quiz. Li'le E said that more ladies of the Valley Forge Quilter sewed with their shoes off. Jacqui knew this was a false statement and won the prize of $18. Linda won a set of yo-yo makers. In case you missed the result of the survey, more members like dark chocolate and sew with their shoes on. Is that you? Once again, thanks for your help. More fun to follow.
