Guild Newsletter

April 2012

President's Message

Happy Easter! Have you purchased your chocolate yet? I don't mean the chocolate that the Easter Bunny will leave...the chocolate for you! We all need it and little bit of it is a good thing!

We're just a couple weeks into spring but I am already behind. The weeds are going to take over! Fall leaves still need to be cleaned up. When is that mulch coming?

Sew much to do! What will I take to retreat? (Oh, I still need to send my check to Sally or I won't need to worry about it!) There are projects that have a deadline, such as my niece's wedding. There are projects that are way past due, such as my Betty Neff and my Sylvia's Bridal Sampler. There are projects that give you a sense of accomplishment when they are done as they are quick projects. There are projects that require thought. Hum... I need a new purse that is more "summery". Sew many decisions!

Happy Easter to all and to all...chocolate!

Next Guild Meeting – April 17, 2012

Program

Ruler Mania—Do you love to quilt but find all the new rulers intimidating? If so, this presentation is for you. Jan and Cynthia will showcase their favorite rulers that make creating and quilting a snap.

Over four years ago, Jan and Cynthia decided it might just be a good idea to open a quilt shop in the Exton area and that dream was fulfilled in August of 2007. Their boutique quilt shop is filled with a variety of fabrics from traditional to modern. With a flare of sass. One customer has even gone as far as saying, "Going to The Quilt Block is like going to a quilting spa!!!"

Next Guild Meeting – April 17, 2012

Hide and Seek Game

Somewhere within the contents of this newsletter, a member's name and zip code will appear. If this is your name and zip code, contact Candy Garrido before the meeting to claim your prize. Candy Garrido

Block of the Month

Please bring your April block to the meeting and display it at the Show and Tell portion of the meeting. Remember to enter your block of the month for a chance to win a great prize from the prize basket. Bring in your completed background and enter for a chance to win a fat quarter bundle.

Members' March block of the month!

A Quilter's Red, White and Blue – Fat Quarter Raffle

Yes, you may be making an American flag, but with a twist. This wall hanging won a second-place prize at one of our quilt shows! The winner of this quarter's fat quarters will receive more than the red, white and blue fabrics, she will also receive the pattern for this really easy wall hanging.

If you'd like to participate, please bring in a red, white (or off white) or blue tone-on-tone fat quarter. For each fat quarter you bring in, we will enter your name in the final drawing.

Please wash and iron your fat quarters. Thank you!

Gloria Clark

Tickets for Raffle Quilt

Raffle tickets are now available for member pickup. Members are required to purchase and sell tickets for our raffle quilt. Get 12 tickets for $10. Pay for them at time of pickup. See Chris Candello.

Attention - Last Chance!

- Wild and Free Workshop with Pat Sloan Sign-up - If you would like to take part in the Wild and Free workshop make sure to see Jean Hayden at the meeting to sign up. After the April meeting, this workshop will be offered to non-members of the guild. Checkout the Display Board back by the refreshments for other upcoming workshops.
- Spring Retreat Monies Due - It's time for our spring "Quilt 'till you Wilt" retreat, April 26-29, 2012 at Mensch Mill Retreat Center in Berks County. Final monies are due!
- Guild Holiday Gift Pickup - If you were absent at the December meeting and have not received your guild holiday gift, please see President Candy for your gift. Gifts not collected by the April meeting will be put into the quilt show boutique. Thank you! Candy Garrido

Question of the Month

What is the 50/50 raffle?

Tickets are sold throughout the meeting by Marge Quinn and Sally Lightcap. You can purchase one ticket for $1 or six tickets for $5. Be sure to write your name on the back of the ticket and place it in the basket. The winning ticket is drawn after the break. The winner receives half of the intake for the night with the other half going to the guild which is used to purchase additional dies for our AccuQuilt.

Candy

Forever Plaid Workshop Instruction Sheets?

I am looking for the instruction sheets from the Plaid Workshop we did in August 2009 with Barbara Lenox. Your help would be appreciated. Ethel Hutchinson

Valley Forge Homestead Quilters Quilt Show October 19-20, 2012

Help Needed for Demos

It's time to start thinking about the demonstrations at the quilt show and we would like your help.

Would you like to do a demonstration of a quilting technique at our quilt show?

or...

Are there any techniques, etc., you would like to have demonstrated?

Call or email Judy Snook

Tickets for Raffle Quilt

Raffle tickets are now available for member pickup. Members are required to purchase and sell tickets for our raffle quilt. Get 12 tickets for $10. Pay for them at time of pickup. See Chris Candello.

Grandma's Attic

Doing your spring cleaning in your sewing room? Gather all your all unwanted items and bring them to Laura Chaplar. She'll be collecting items for Grandma's Attic at our quilt show in October.

2012 Challenge—Silver Celebration

The countdown to the 25th Anniversary party continues. Have you planned your challenge quilt?

We are celebrating our 25th Anniversary in 2012. Your challenge is to use silver in your quilt.

Silver can be shiny, sparkly, or gray. It must be 25% of your quilt. Now might be a good time to check out the silver fabrics in your favorite quilt shops!

Use any design or pattern, original or commercially available and any construction technique. You may piece, appliqué, embroider, cross-stitch, paint, or embellish it.

Your quilt should be no larger than 50" on any given side. It may be any quilted item (quilt, jacket, bag, etc.). Your quilt should be something made during the coming year (October 2011 to September 2012).

Contact Judy Snook for more information.

Our Bees are open to all members of the Valley Forge Homestead Quilt Guild. We work on our own hand projects (there's not usually room for sewing machines); we assist each other by suggesting ways to layout quilt blocks, work with colors, etc.; and we enjoy each other's company in a smaller venue. If you would like to host one of the Bees, please contact Jean Hayden (Afternoon Bee); Beth Quigley (Evening Bee); Gloria Clark (Appliqué Bee) or Jackie Gauker (Got Wool).

May Meeting Preview - May 15, 2012

Meg Cox, veteran journalist and author, whose writing career includes 17 years on staff at the Wall Street Journal will present a journalist's look at today's quilt world. Her book, "The Quilter's Catalog: A Comprehensive Resource Guide," is a look at the modern quilt world and all its tools, techniques, teachers and trends. Dawn 19087

Welcome New Member

Molly Lorenz, our new member, was introduced to our guild by her friends. She has been sewing since high school. Her 86 year old mother is a quilter, but Molly just started quilting recently and it was her mother who influenced her. She is interested in all types of quilts. When she is not at her job as an art teacher, Molly might be reading, writing stories and poetry, painting and illustrating, riding bike, antiquing, collecting buttons and books, and crafts. She is married with grown children and a cat.

Cookie Recipe from Deb Graves

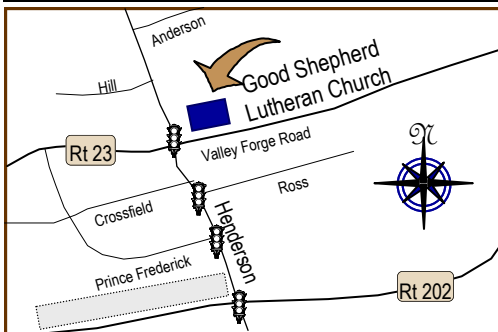

Eleanor Sillery's Ginger Cookies

- 3/4 cup liquid cooking oil
- 1 cup sugar
- 1/4 cup molasses
- 1 egg
- 2 tsp. baking soda
- 2 cups flour
- 1/2 tsp. ground cloves
- 1/2 tsp. ginger
- 1 tsp. cinnamon
- 1/2 tsp. salt

Add sugar, molasses and egg to oil. Blend well. Add dry ingredients and mix well. Chill dough. Form into one inch balls and roll in granulated sugar. Space about 2 inches apart on cookie sheets. Bake at 375F for 8 to 10 minutes. Cookies are done when the tops start to crack. Makes about 3-4 dozen cookies. About 90 calories per cookie. Yum.
