President's Corner

Let me just recap how nice the Secret Garden Friendship Tea was! Of course, if you attended you know, but if you didn't you can mark your calendar for September 23, 2023, so you don't miss the next one.

About two dozen members gathered to chat and sew and learn and share a potluck lunch (heavy on the desserts!). Several new members came so we got to know each other better than we do at regular meetings. Thank you 'sew' much to Charlene Hagarty and Cathy Fennell who planned this event. They had festive decorations, door prizes, and two make and take projects.

We are in the home stretch for the quilt show. You have sent in your entries, signed up to work shifts, and planned some goodies for the cafe. If you entered a UFO, you still have a couple weeks to finish it. Get sewing.

If you are done sewing your quilts, you could make some items to sell in the Boutique or finally organize your sewing area and donate unwanted but gently used useful items to Grandma's Attic. Remember our October meeting will be collection of items for the quilt show. Find the details elsewhere in the newsletter.

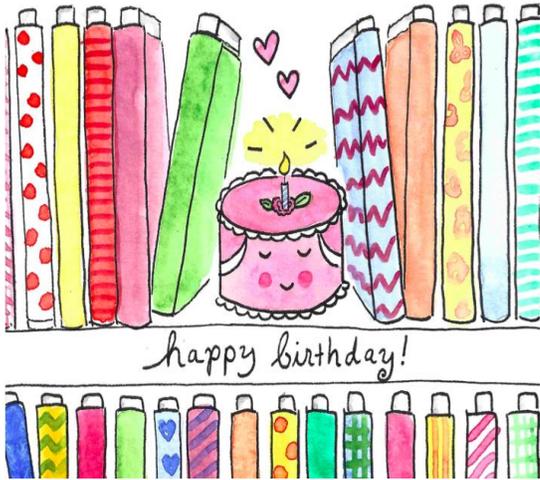

Before sitting down to write this column I was out walking and spotted a yellow parakeet in someone's driveway. It wasn't too skittish, but it flew away when I tried to catch it, and then it poured rain. I did post the spot on several sites for lost pets. I hope the little guy finds a safe home.

Until next time,
Deb Graves

Thank You

Thank you, thank you, thank you to all the members and friends who sold raffle tickets and white gloved at the quilt show in Oaks. It was quite successful mostly because of all your friendly faces and warm greetings to the attendees. I could not have done this without your help.

Cathy Fennell

October 18, 2022 Meeting

This month is all about quilt show preparation. Please bring your registered quilts, items for the boutique and grandma's attic (baked goods should be dropped off the mornings of the show). The process to submit your quilts may take some time. You might want to bring a hand project to work on while you wait.

November 21, 2022 Meeting

There's a few things happening this month. The quilt show wrap-up. We'll hear from our quilt show committee as to how well we did with our quilt show. We'll see the viewer's choice winning quilts. There will also be an anniversary celebration of our club....35 years! Let's eat cake! Finally, we'll talk a bit about our holiday party in December.

Meeting Minutes - September 20, 2022

WELCOME: Deb Graves welcomes all the members present and our new members, Janet Gaboury and Laura Leon-Maurice. Deb took a survey about the quilt show café food donations. Another email for members to sign up to donate will be sent out.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- Ruth Heslin talked about the mini-quilt donations. They should be as close to 16 x 20" as possible.
- Signup Genius went out for the quilt show jobs. Fifty members have not volunteered. We all need to help.

DOOR PRIZES AND 50/50 DRAWING: Door prizes were won by Laura Chaplar and Kim Girard. The 50:50 was won by Joann Kirschenmann.

BLOCK of the MONTH: Beth Mancini presented the new free Block of the Month, encouraging all to participate. There will be one clue each month to solve the mystery. The quilt trends toward modern although that depends on the fabric you choose. It could be scrappy. She will give the first clue in December for January. The size is about 72x84. She suggests keeping your clues in a binder. She had handouts at the meeting but cannot put it in the newsletter. Contact Beth for more information.

COMFORT QUILTS: Maxine Close reported twelve quilts were donated last month for a total of 156 for the year. She dropped off some last week to the Paoli Hospital in-house hospice. She has planned two opportunities for members to make comfort quilt kits at her home with a free luncheon. They will be September 23 and October 14 at 9:30.

WORKSHOPS: Cathy Fennell presented the workshops.

- This Saturday, September 24 is the Secret Garden Friendship Tea,
- On November 19 we will be making dignity bibs with Linda Mitchell and is free,
- December 3 will find Kate Mulberger showing us how to make potholder quilts using a quilt as you go method, not making actual potholders. Kate was our guild speaker. The cost is $35.

BEES: See the newsletter for when the bees occur.

QUILT SHOW: Cathy Fennell spoke about how to register your quilts at the Tuesday, October 18 meeting. The October meeting won't be a regular meeting. There will be several tables for quilts. Bring your labeled quilts, take them out of bag and hand them to the person collecting it. They will put each quilt in fresh bag, and you will be given a receipt for each quilt you submit. You must have the receipt to take your quilt home. All quilts must be labeled. Your quilt should have your full name including your maiden name, where you live, and the date it was made. We have 155 quilts entered and Cathy encouraged people to sign up tonight to register if they have not done so. This is not a judged show, but more for family, friends and each other. Viewers who donate the entrance fee can vote on a favorite. Call Cathy if you can help hang the quilts at 1:00 on Thursday, October 20.

- Carol Olinick would appreciate paper carton box lids for Grandma's Attic
- You can bring items except food to the October 18 meeting. Grandma's Attic, Boutique, raffle baskets and Chance Auction things are to be put on the stage in designated areas.
- Linda Mitchell and Kathie Haney request that you please bring the food you signed up for on either Friday or Saturday morning. If you volunteered to bring something both days, please bring them separately each day. Kathie had a beautiful display of how you can package your goodies and wrappers for items.
- Babette announced that it was the last day to place an ad for the program and to please see her tonight.

2023 Mystery Block of the Month

October 2022

Who doesn't love a great "Who Done It"? Well, if you would like to do the block of the month for 2023 that is exactly what you're going to get. Some of you have taken my mystery workshops and hopefully had a great time. The nice thing about doing a block of the month mystery is that you will have more time compared to a workshop.

The designer of this quilt suggests one background fabric and choosing fat quarters. I chose larger cuts of fabric in case I needed it. Besides the background fabric, I chose a focus fabric. I went a little crazy and chose a lot of different fabrics but did not use them all. I just wanted options. For the most part, the blocks use three fabrics plus the background. There is one block that uses five different fabrics. If you have your background, a focus fabric and at least four other coordinating fabrics you should be good. I didn't get anything under half a yard and most of my fabric cuts were at least a yard.

The block instructions will not be put on the website or the newsletter. If you are unable to come to guild, don't worry we will get you your patterns either through email or snail mail. As always if you have any questions, I am always here to help you in anyway. If you need to meet at a quilt shop for help, I am always up for that too. This quilt does lend itself more towards the modern which most of you know is not me. But I did use a combination of modern and traditional fabrics. Please do not be dissuaded from this if you are not into modern quilts, make this your own.

Thank you so much for taking this adventure with me.

Mysteriously yours,
Beth Mancini

WELCOME LAURA LEON-MAURICE

Laura's grandmother quilted with scraps and that sparked her interest. Laura has been quilting for over 35 years and has taken many classes. She likes to make wall hangings and bed size quilts. Laura enjoys free styling, making her own patterns. She doesn't especially like machine quilting her quilts so for the first time she sent out a king size quilt to be quilted. She is an executive assistant at the district office for a community college in Oakland, California. Yes, California. She works hybrid three weeks in Philadelphia and one week in California, every month! Laura and her husband missed their only son so moved here from the San Francisco Bay Area last year.

WELCOME JANET GABOURY

Janet likes the whole process of making a bed size quilt from picking out fabric, cutting, piecing, and quilting to binding. "It is fun to give the projects as presents", says Janet. To let you know how much Janet likes to quilt bed size quilts, she has made around 50. She learned to piece from her mother and in her late 20s, she learned to do the hand quilting that she does on most of her quilts. Wall hangings, table runners, and placemats are some of the things Janet has also made. It is a good thing she is retired from being a chemist so she has even more time to enjoy quilting, vegetable gardening, and reading.

Spring Retreats

The VFHQ Spring retreat will be Thursday, March 30 to Sunday, April 2, 2023, at Black Rock Retreat Center. I will have details of the cost and the signup sheets beginning at the November meeting. There will be a minimum of 10 participants and maximum of 25 so I hope you will consider attending.

For those who have never been to the retreat Black Rock is in southern Lancaster County near Quarryville, Pa. All meals are provided and included in the cost for the retreat. The bedrooms can take 2 or 3 people. There is opportunity to take walks outdoors in the wooded surroundings and we have always had a campfire complete with S'mores one evening as well as some fun and games. Need I add that if you want or need to you can also go shopping at Lancaster County quilt stores.

Retreat is an opportunity to get to know other members and spend concentrated time working on whatever projects you like. We have a good time oohing and aahing over each other's work and helping each other as needed.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me via email at baarbhughes@verizon.net or text (or phone) at 215 407-0580

Appraisals aren't just for antique quilts. It's important to document them for your homeowner's insurance too. Giving a bed-sized or elaborate quilt for a gift? Consider an appraisal so the recipient knows the value of the time and materials you invested in making it. The love, of course, is priceless. Dawn Heefner will be doing appraisals at our quilt show on Friday.

The 2022 Friendship Tea was a huge success honoring our new members. Trivets and coasters were made from make-it-take-it kits. The food was delicious. Best of all, there was chatter and sewing in abundance. Many thanks to Cathy Fennell and Charlene Hagarty.

Our Quilt Show is Around the Corner

GRANDMA'S ATTIC:

You can bring your things for Grandma's Attic to our guild meeting, October 18th. Please put everything on the stage in the designated area. Carol is happy with what she has now but would love more!

QUILT SHOW CAFE:

Kathie and Linda appreciate all those who have signed up to contribute to the café this year. For those who haven't, please consider a donation. It doesn't have to be something that we suggested. We would be grateful for anything that you would like to make or buy in the category of baked goods or snacks. All items will need to be packaged, and we will bring more packaging to the next guild meeting. Kathie and Linda will be available to receive donations at the church on Thursday, October 20, starting at 1:00 p.m. and before the show on both Friday and Saturday. Please consider donating! Please email Linda at Lamitchell8@yahoo.com or Kathie at khaney2847@gmail.com with any questions. Please help make this year's café a success!

DIRECTIONS FOR TURNING IN YOUR QUILTS:

We will collect the quilts to be exhibited at our Quilt show on Tuesday, October 18.

All quilts should be labeled but do not need to have hanging sleeves. You do not need to bring the form you sent to Sue Fisher.

Please form an orderly line.

Tables will be set up for Cathy Fennell and Judy Snook to check in your quilts.

Please bring just your quilts. They do not need to be in pillowcases or plastic bags unless that is how you transport them. We will ask you to remove the quilts from the pillowcase/plastic bag before presenting to Cathy or Judy.

Your quilts will each receive a number which is pinned on the back of the quilt near the label. You will receive a receipt for each quilt entered. Please keep these receipts somewhere handy as you will need to bring them on Saturday, October 22 at 5:00 to retrieve your quilts.

We will place all quilts in clear plastic bags, sorted by size and/or category. The quilts will be transported to a member's home for safekeeping until Oct. 21 when we will be hanging them to exhibit.
